BIG BROTHER #40:

15 JULY to AUGUST 1, 1967.

BIG BROTHER OUT WEST!

On Saturday a little after one in the afternoon I took my seat on the bus that was to carry me across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, and California. During the trip I had to set my watch back three times as I crossed the four time zones.

On Tuesday morning before six I arrived at San Francisco and took a local bus up to Pleasant Hill, Calif. Charless Turner took me to his home where I spent the next three enjoyable days. While there I attended an European History Class at the Univ. of California at Berkeley where I played the part of a "non Student" and my contribution during the class discussions were greeted by the statement, "That's right! I agree with you," by the instructor as Jim Dygert sat next to me as he was a student there. After the class Jim introduced Gail Schow to me.

Wednesday night was the Diplomacy game at Brian Baily's home. While there I met Anders Swenson, Clyde Johnson, and of course Charles & Jim were there. Also met Jack Greene.

Thursday Brian took me to San Francisco to shop in China Town and to ride on the famous San Francisco Cable Car.

Friday night we played another Diplomacy game at Jim Dygert's home. Afterwards Andy and I took a short visit to see Don Brannen & Christine Cartier. Oh yes-at the Diplomacy game were Turner, Dygert, Swenson, Ballew, Johnson, Greene, myself and a friend of Jack's. I stayed at Andy's home overnight.

Saturday night I stayed at Brian's home and he took me to the Airport the next morning. I flew down to San Diego with a short stop at Los Angeles. Conrad von Metake picked me up at the airport and I stayed the next three nights at his home.

Sunday night we played Diplomacy in Bob Cline's Coffeehut. There I met Dan Barrows, Harold Peck, Bud Pondergrass, Dennis Smith, & Larry Peery. Monday night another game at the same locale with Conrad & Leonard Garband replacing Harold & Bud.

Tuesday night at Hal Neus' trailer along with Barrows, von Metake, and myself, for Pinocchio & Nuclear War.

Wednesday I boarded the bus for Las Vegas and after lots of excitement I arrived at Denver, Colorado Friday afternoon. Roland Thudiker was my host the next two evenings and then I boarded the bus for home on Sunday morning. I arrived home suit case at Clarion Tuesday at 1:30 A.M. It came a day later.

Besides the very interesting Diplomacy Games the Civil War game "1863" was enjoyed by the West Coast players. The most fun game was of course the Nuclear War Game. Also played was Tactics II, Chess, Stratego, and other War & Avalon Hill Games. "Go".

I really enjoyed the trip and especially those that gave me of this time, gasoline, and homes to make this trip one I so enjoy thinking about for a long time. THANK YOU ALL!-Big Brother.

PRESS RELEASES: England-The Present 'Sleeping Sickness' attacking France calls for new considerations.

Turkey-This may be the losers game, but there will be at least one winner. (Ed.-Right you 'Tigers'!)

France-Paris has announced the signing of a long term peace treaty with England. She also is spreading some "peace" around Germany's area. Who has better "peace", Germany or France?---Note to Birsan:In spite of the fact I paid "The Chest" for two games, paid for a subscription to Graustark, and purchased many dollars of back issues(many of which he neglected to send) he never sent me any issues of 'LIAR' since #91, May '66.
